Vocational Counsellor – Sydney, NSW

About the Role

Pure Insights is seeking passionate and qualified counsellors, social workers, and psychologists to provide short-term, solution-focused counselling for jobseekers facing complex barriers to employment.

In this role, you will:

- Conduct professional assessments to understand client needs, including mental health, trauma, addiction, behavioural challenges, and family/relationship concerns.
- Deliver tailored therapeutic interventions to support clients in overcoming employment barriers.
- Provide referrals and liaison services with other professional providers as needed.
- Maintain accurate and comprehensive reports and intervention plans.
- Starting casual 1-2 days/week, with view to increase to full-time.

About You

At Pure Insights, we value authenticity, passion, and a drive to create meaningful change. We are looking for professionals who share our commitment to empowering individuals from diverse backgrounds.

Key Requirements:

- Degree-qualified (minimum Bachelor's in Psychology, Counselling, or Social Work).
- Registered with AHPRA, ACA, PACFA, ASORC, or AASW.
- Experience in clinical counselling interventions and stakeholder engagement.
- Ability to manage a diverse and complex caseload independently.
- Strong relationship-building and communication skills.
- Proven experience in report writing and case documentation.
- Willingness to travel within your region as needed.
- Access to a laptop with internet connectivity.
- Must hold Professional Indemnity Insurance.
